Patriotic Concert To-night

J. E. Moffatt spent last week in the Champion district.

Major James spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Phil William and Hans Brunner joined the 13th O. M. R.

A. C. Clarkson, formerly manager of the Bank of Commerce, was in town this week.

Constable Langenshuff made a trip to Stately on Saturday last returning in the evening with two drunks.

The new flag staff, at the Agricultural college is 75 ft. high, so Mr. Stanley Ferguson informs us. We regret our mistake in last week's issue which stated it to be 25 ft.

We have recently learned that the B. C. government presented each of the Agricultural colleges in Alberta with a B. C. grow pole for flag staff purposes.

A big horse sale will be held at the stock yards on Saturday, May 20th. Sixty head of horses will be sold without reserve. See posters for full particulars.

The Patriotic concert which will be given tonight (Friday) should be crowded to the doors. An excellent program has been prepared, and the proceeds will go to a worthy cause.

The buffalo are again on the increase in Alberta. In 1910 the herd at Watwinch numbered only 625. The latest report shows 2077 within the enclosure. In a few years we will be able to enjoy buffalo steaks for breakfast.

Mr. Bolton Annable left for lower altitude on Wednesday morning. He has been suffering from some serious heart trouble, and is taking an extended trip for his health.

The Famous Players films now being shown at the Rex, are gaining in popularity and bringing credit and box receipts to management. The show put on last Friday and Saturday was particularly good and was witnessed by large audiences.

Mayor Holmes informed the Nanton news last week that Claresholm has made arrangements with the Bessemer company for the purchase of a 100 h.p. gas engine for their light and power plant, but that the town will keep its steam plant for emergency.

The balls are out for the ball to be held in the Opera hall on Tuesday, May 23. The proceeds will be spent in equipping the town band with instruments. Those who like to dance the "light fantastic" keep the date in mind. Others send a little donation to the secretary, Mr. Todd at Clark's store. We appreciate a hand. Give them a chance to make it the best possible.

There is a controversy in town as to whether the new grading which has been done on Railway street is any improvement or not. Some say that with the first rain storm it will be in vialde. We hope that it is not as finished. In any case the Review Advertiser staff would like a new crossing to the printing office or the old one replaced.

Claresholm citizens filled the opera house, on Tuesday evening to see the "White Feather," put on by the Sherman players. The story does not call for any great amount of acting, being largely conversational in nature, but it was interesting just the same. Guy Carter, as Brink, held the centre of interest, and played his difficult role with skill and genius. Every member of the company did his or her part naturally and well, and the audience went away well satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

Those who read the answer of the Executive of the Temperance and Moral Reform League, to the charges made by the Alberta and the Free Livery men, will be perfectly satisfied that the League has done nothing to be ashamed of at its recent meeting. The league has done an admirable work in the past, and under the able leadership of the new secretary will continue to lead the moral forces of this province to better victories.

Mrs. Leo Schoof left town on Wednesday for Ontario, where she will spend the summer with her mother and sister. Mrs. Leo Schoof is expected in a few days to keep house during Mrs. Schoof's absence.

U. F. A. Notes

President Wood, of the U. F. A., is the man who first suggested the convening of the U. F. A. Sunday. The proposition was discussed at the last convention and was adopted by an unanimous vote. It is now up to the farmers to make it a success. Nearly all the farmers here have a special Sunday. With most of these, their ritual is based on the teaching and incidents recorded in Scripture, and it is fitting that at least once a year they should make public recognition of their faith in a Supreme Being. With the farmer, who after he has seen his seed and done all that he can to ensure success, is ever conscious that some greater power must send the rains and supply the heat, or his own labors will be a failure, it is especially fitting, that in the spring of the year while he looks for the blessings of heaven upon his growing crops, that he should publicly recognize his dependence upon a beneficent creator.

That Sunday is the day. The gathering place is the Old Follies Hall. Let every farmer with his family be present at 3 o'clock. A special address will be given by Rev. E. E. MacNiven, and other ministers and laymen will be present to assist. This is the big day of the year for the U. F. A.

The New Pastor

The induction service at the Presbyterian church last Friday, was largely attended. Most of the members of the congregation were present, and quite a number of visitors.

The service was conducted by Rev. Toulson of Nanton. An able sermon was preached by the missionary, Superintendent Rev. D. Ferguson, which was much appreciated by the audience.

The address to the congregation was given by Rev. MacNiven, of Granum, and the address to the new pastor, Rev. Kidd, was given by Rev. Kerr, of Saskatoon. The other ministers in town, Rev. MacNiven and Rev. Phoenix, with the Presbyterian congregation, extended a welcome to the new pastor.

On Sunday last, large congregations were present at the Presbyterian church to hear the new pastor, Mr. Kidd both morning and evening preached very excellent sermons. The congregation was especially pleased with the earnest evangelistic tone of his preaching.

The Presbyterian church is to be congratulated on the happy choice that has been made and they have a good reason to look forward to a prosperous and successful future in their church life.

American Legion

Lieut. Christiaan Serg. Smith, of the American Legion, arrived in town on Wednesday, and will be here until Saturday night remaining. "For God and Justice" is the watchword and motto of the brigade, which will consist of the 95th, 201st, 212nd, 218th battalions. The American Legion is made up of men who believe in fair play, love and liberty, and are ready to fight for the right. The men joining are the highest type of manhood, men whom anyone might well be proud to associate with.

Civilization vs. barbarism is the question being decided on the battle-fields now. Because the Allies stand for that is right, free thinking, independent Americans are fighting by thousands on Britain's side.

Germany has proved herself a menace to civilization and the world's liberties. After the Russo treatment neutral Belgium, a little peace-loving country, no thinking man of America can fail to realize his duty to do his bit to stand out against the brutal, savage, which desolated Belgium and is now bent on conquering the whole civilized world.

Germany has the sword, and torch would be brought to North America and the spiked helmet would be worn by the Kaiser's army and would demand that Canada's fate would be better than Belgium's. There is no more to be said. It is not a battle merely of nations, but of good against evil, of humanity against the forces of blind, unfeeling, unscrupulous, after the last act of tyranny. If you are a real man—get into this fight. If you are a real man, join with the American Legion!

LADY URSULA'S HUSBAND

 The simple gravity with which she whispered the well-known words struck her brother into momentary silence.

And before he could recover himself
 the door opened and Paul came in.
 It was amusing to the younger man
 to see how contentedly the bridegroom bowed himself. He came in with the air of a man who has been bribed by being kept away from his bride by an important friend.

"Well, am I too soon? Have you had your talk out?" he inquired in the most matter-of-fact manner in the world.

"No," said Lady Ursula, rising from the sofa with a smile. "It is coming untoward had happened. There's no more to say by either of us."

And Paul saw, as he knew from her beautiful, clear eyes, how things had gone. He laid his hand tenderly up on her arm.

"You are not going back with your brother?" he said, confidently.

"The bridegroom turned civilly, but with an air of authority, to his brother-in-law."

"I think that settles the matter,"
 said he.

The young man shrugged his shoulders.
 "Yes, I suppose so," he said. "Then he added bitterly, "I am not going
 for nothing for me to do but to let her go into misery with her eyes open."

It is a moment later that he saw her side him, exulting openly.

"But say that, Paul, I may say any thing to you, anything that you might be sorry for, anything that you might be ashamed of."

"There's no fear of that," said the young man abruptly. "I don't know that I didn't know before what I know now. I would have jacked you up in your own room till it was too fellow safety out of the country?"

"Oh, hush, hush!"
 Paul, smiling and cool, said gently—
 "Let him think."

were not so keen as her own, although she had no idea what a gift there lay between the mind of the man she loved and her own. But she had carefully avoided any talk that could offend or hurt him by instance on a topic which he did not care for, and so it happened that this quiet whisper came upon him with the force of a revelation.

For a moment he said nothing, then he bent down and kissed her hair.

It seemed to the innocent woman that this was an act of homage to her beauty. It was not exactly that, but it was the nearest approach to it that the racial Paul Payne, alias Syd Kin-son, had ever performed.

CHAPTER IV
 On the following morning, when Paul and Lady Ursula were at breakfast in their sitting room, Paul who was reclining on the sofa, asked the water whether the gentleman who had followed them into the room the previous night was staying at the hotel.

"A flush of interest and surprise came into the eyes of the bride as she heard this question, and the answer, which was in the negative. As soon as they were alone, she looked up at her husband and said:

"What is that to England, of course. What he could do, please."

"That good humored as he generally was, could not yet speak of his brother-in-law with absolute equanimity."

"And he had said, 'I am not going
 for nothing for me to do but to let her

The Power of God

Some Precepts Adopted for the Boy Scout Movement

A Scoutmaster once told me that one of the first things to do with the boys into the presence of God.

"You can never bring boys into the presence of God, because they are in that presence always."

This one of the first things to remember when considering religion for boys.

"It is almost, too old a saying," he said, "but it is essentially a religious being,
 but it is a reminder that the world
 religion is something that comes out
 of the boy's own heart."

We can, however, help the boys to realize the presence of God. There is nature itself, for example, and the relation of God through human beings,
 but it is a reminder that the world
 religion is something that comes out
 of the boy's own heart."

Help your boys to realize the presence of God. There is nature itself, for example, and the relation of God through human beings, but it is a reminder that

Irregular Attendance At Saskatchewan Schools

Proportion of High School Pupils in Public School Pupils in Sas-

(Contributed by Norman F. Black,
 M.A., D.Ed., Regina)

In a report for 1914 the minister of education states that 2,543 pupils doing high school work were enrolled in the public schools of the province and 2,921 in the high schools and colli-ge institutes. The total number of students above Grade 8 was therefore 5,464; the number enrolled in grades
 9 to 12 was 10,816. That is to say,
 5,464 more advanced work.

This proportion is below that of 27 States in the American Union, according to the statistics of 1910. In these 27 States there were from 10 to 118 high school pupils for every 1,000 pupils enrolled in the elementary schools.

A chief cause for the relatively small proportion of Saskatchewan school children that are receiving high school education is irregular attendance in the elementary grades.

This results in such slow progress that the children reach the age limit of 16 years without having been in junior classes and drop out of school.

Invention of the Telephone

Brantford Claims to be the Birthplace
 of the Telephone

Sam Slick's perpetual reminder of the province of New England is declared that the steamboat, the railway, the electric telephone, and the electric light were all invented in New England by Yankees in succession. This week notice of the invention of the telephone in Boston. At 109 Court street a commemorative tablet has been placed bearing the following inscription:

"Here the telephone was born June 2, 1876. The Bostonian Society and the Telephone Company of Boston and Telegraph Company placed this tablet March 1915."

As the city of Brantford is preparing to celebrate the birth of the telephone in this city, this claim by the Intellectual Capital of the United States should not be allowed to pass unchallenged. According to this question from the evidence of the inventor, Alexander Graham Bell, given in the government telephone suit, and by him forwarded to Mr. T. H. Preston of the Brantford Examiner, the claim of Brantford is substantiated by the following:

"A series of experiments were made at Tutuila Heights, Brantford, in 1875, in which the inventor, Alexander Graham Bell, was assisted by his son, Melville, and by his wife, Mabel.
 The experiments were conducted in the inventor's laboratory, which was then in the city of Brantford."

The Dairy Herd

Intelligent Selections of Dairy Cows is Necessary

Not only interest but real value attaches to the question of carefully noting the individual performance of each cow in the herd. It is only by keeping a complete record that one finds such a strange contrast as this: Of two five-year-old cows in the herd, both fresh the same day, both dried off the same week one gave 1,641 pounds of milk and 23 pounds of fat, the other gave only 1,570 pounds of milk and 153 pounds of fat. Most probably the owner would not have taken one set at all, but in the year of the season that the one could bring in over twenty dollars more than the other, but she cost more.

In another section, of two cows of the same age, one gave 8,430 pounds of milk and 362 pounds of fat, but the other gave only 1,490 pounds of milk and 15 pounds of fat. The difference of eighty-eight dollars in the earning power of any two cows in your herd.

Building up a profitable dairy herd includes the selection of good individual cows. The natural method is to weigh the milk and test samples regularly for fat. Write to the dairy in Ontario, for information on cow-testing, so that your selection may be intelligent, so that your profits may be larger.

There is more cattle in this section together, and until the last few years, the cattle of this section were not so good as the cattle of the other sections. The cattle of this section were not so good as the cattle of the other sections.

With over half the Canadian tonnage of the Great Lakes engaged in the foreign trade in and around the United Kingdom and on the Atlantic coast, the balance of the fleet, comprising about 62 vessels, will be busy filling the large number of charters offered for the season about to open.

As a matter of fact several owners have announced that their vessels are booked for the entire season for the grain trade, while others are prepared to fall in line but are holding back for better prices, consequently the vessel interest looks forward to a bumper season. The different fleets will be pressed into service as soon as possible.

Flax For Grain

By J. H. Driedale, Director Experimental Farms, Ottawa

As a crop likely to be quite as profitable as wheat this year may be mentioned. The annual consumption of flaxseed in the home market of 20,000,000 bushels on this continent. All but 2,000,000 bushels of this is used in the United States. The combined crop of seed in Canada and the United States fall usually 12,000,000 or 13,000,000 short of this amount. This extra seed is normally brought from Argentina, and is coming in at the present time.

Where wheat seedling has progressed rather slowly, it will often be advisable to sow the last few acres intended for wheat rather to flax. The cash returns per acre from the two crops are likely to be practically equal this year and about the same as they were last year. So why not try wheat, usually a poor crop at best?

Only clean seed should be sown, and on clean land. A limited area of well-prepared land sown with clean seed will be more profitable than a large area of badly-prepared land on which dirty seed is used.

Well-prepared land means: (1) a good year's crop of stubble after summerfall properly burned, well cultivated, sown and harrowed, (2) either stubble land burned if possible, well ploughed, and harrowed, and (3) sown and tilled and then packed again or rolled and harrowed.

For the new settler or the man with a few acres of land, a flax crop of 25, for flax offers an opportunity for money-making this year on the land which is not possible with any other crop. Break about three inches deep, and sow the seed in the furrows, and openings and spaces between the furrows, and conserve moisture. Flax will make a good seed-bed. Sow seed early before the first of May, and at the rate of 30 to 40 pounds per acre.

Hungary Dragged into the War at the Behest of Austria

Of course there is no reason on earth why the people of Hungary should be at war with the British empire. They have no grievance against Britain, nor had the British nation any quarrel with the Hungarians.

Hungary was dragged into the war at the behest of Austria. The war was the central empire had spoken. The province of Hungary had no choice but to follow the lead of Austria.

Of the Austro-Hungarian casualties. It is said, seventy per cent of men from Hungary. They are brave men, and they have been bravely as cannon-fodder for their Teutonic rulers. They expressed a growing feeling of resentment in Budapest recently by protesting against the production of a German play with German players in their capital city, objecting to the Germanization of Hungarian life.

At the same time, Budapest was two English plays, one of Shaw's and a Conan Doyle drama, being played before a large audience. English speaking people are allowed to take part in the community life of Budapest with hardly a restriction. The German players were given good reception, and made a very brief stay.

Social Centres

Emphasis is being laid at the present time by many writers on the need of social centres, not only in the towns but in the country districts. That there is need and opportunity for development along this line is very evident. Consolidated schools would seem to be the first step to take toward this end. With the school should be a hall for the transaction of public business. The U. F. A. and other organizations could hold their meetings there. A moving picture machine should be installed and proper educational films, which are rapidly obtainable, shown every week. Near by should be the community church, the read, use of the school teacher, the district nurse, the community secretary and the agricultural expert. The rural life of Alberta would be completely transformed if such attractive and interesting social centres were scattered over our prairies.

Peace at Any Price

Peace at any price. This phrase was used by Cicero, in the days before Rome was wholly ruined by war. It was revived as a reproach to Wellington, who strove to settle petty international differences without murder.

Perhaps not, but let us see your price list first. Is there any human price greater than the one we are now paying for war? How of honor, how of justice on every hand, waste of property without parallel, how of Europe's best life, exclusion of generations to come, to be felt every day for a century? Yet sometimes peace cannot be had at any price. Nocheles was left to Serbia, or Belgium, or to France. If we are free to choose, let us count the cost. Give us the price list first.—David Starr Jordan.

The inhabitants of Stavely have a name far and wide for church attendance and Sabbath keeping. In some towns, it is said, they haul feed and grain and clean up back yards on the Lord's day. We are glad it is so different in Stavely.

Lieut. Brand, formerly of Stavely has written from Salonika to his brother, Robt. Brand. He is a very interesting document attached to one of the English regiments serving in Greece. He sent a $5 and $250 gold Greek coins, as well as a Balkan newspaper, which was published in Salonika. The latter is a very interesting document. It is published daily and sold at a penny. The letters and articles in it, show that there is a bright side even to a soldier's life at the front.

Miss Jessie Brand, of Kamloops, is expected to Stavely soon. She plans to spend her holidays with friends here.

The chase, Thursday night, was a great success. Mr. West, manager of the Bank of Commerce, gave a very appropriate address in behalf of the soldier boys. There was quite a number of visitors from Clareholm and other outside points, present.

What might have been a serious contest on Sunday evening was prevented by the quick action of Mr. Travis. His team started to run just as he was getting into the rig. He caught one line, swinging the horses and turning the rig over.

They made a dash down the street, making skidding wood of the rig, but saving Mr. Travis behind without a scratch.

One of our farmers, living east of town, had a difficult time with his new Ford, the other day. Something went wrong and the little Ford engine refused to function. Thinking it needed a new barrel, he went to the store and bought one.

He attached his big team to it and pulled it around his half section of land, but all to no purpose. In desperation he hauled it to town to the agent. After the agent had looked it over for the best part of an hour, the discovery was made that the gasoline tank was empty. He learned, however, that a ton of horse was a good substitute for gasoline and not quite as costly.

Where's Daddy

Three little kiddies disappeared from Granum on Wednesday morning. They were Jack Leyden, 4 years old, Viran Tilden 5 years old, and William Byron Tilden 2 years old.

As soon as the news was reported in town, everybody turned out to hunt. Old wells, out buildings and every conceivable place where a child could hide, was searched, but all in vain.

The telephone wires soon at work and the farmers in every direction were asked to join in the search.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon they were discovered near Woodhouse, looking along towards Clareholm, looking for daddy (H. B. Tilden, who is working on the Review-Advertiser staff, at Clareholm).

In the story of Conquest it is said of him that he would never shut a hand at rest nor take a rest. He believed in giving those enemies what he called a "fair chance." May a modern sportsman might well say in the foot of the great Canadian teacher.

War Victims

No war of which we have any record has smitten with such fatal hand the lives of countless children. It has been estimated that 100,000 little Polish boys and girls and babies have perished in the invasions of that country. Miss Alma Tadema says: "They have died upon the road homeless; you could find your way from Warsaw to Moscow by the graves on their graves." She also says that it may be stated on good authority that among the Galician refugees who fled into Austria, after the Russian invasion, nearly every child under eight years old perished.

War Notes

Everything is now looking bad for the Huns. Nowhere can they advance without being smitten with such fatal hand the lives of countless children. It has been estimated that 100,000 little Polish boys and girls and babies have perished in the invasions of that country. Miss Alma Tadema says: "They have died upon the road homeless; you could find your way from Warsaw to Moscow by the graves on their graves." She also says that it may be stated on good authority that among the Galician refugees who fled into Austria, after the Russian invasion, nearly every child under eight years old perished.

The Turks are sending appeals to the Kaiser for reinforcements of ammunition and men to attack the Russian advance on Bagdad. Meanwhile Russia is advancing through eastern Turkey, and it looks probable that the Turkish army in Mesopotamia may be cut off and forced to surrender. In case this happens the 100,000 British and Indian troops which surrendered to the Turks at Kutulama may be released.

Another Americanization was killed when the Batar was blown up. The patience of President Wilson still endures.

The Austrians have driven the Italians from some of their advanced positions, and claim to have captured 6,000 prisoners.

The compilation bill passed the third reading in the British House of Commons on Wednesday. The vote was 250 to 55.

Those Railway Loans

The 12 million dollar loan to the C.N.R. was passed in the house of Commons on Monday last. R. B. Bennett gave as his opinion, that the C.N.R. and G.T.P. should be placed in the hands of receivers, and not a single dollar be paid for the stock. He thought the government should control the money in hand as he believed McKenzie & Mann could not be trusted.

Mr. Bennett declared that the C.N.R. had borrowed on the credit of Canada from $300,000 to $400,000 which they had paid to themselves as another firm—McKenzie & Mann, railroad builders. In other words they had borrowed money on our credit, and under another name had built the C.N.R. transcontinental. But then they handed the road over to the people and to themselves. No doubt but that the Board of Inquiry, that is to make a report on the physical and financial conditions of the Canadian railways will have something interesting to give to the public when their investigation is complete.
